

I normally provide the first two study manuals prior to the course starting so you can become familiar with the material. Also, you don't need to apply for the exam before taking the course. I will go through the process you need to apply and provide you with a special spreadsheet to help you summarize your hours.