

I can't tell you how much my PMP has helped. I wish I could say my job is easier but it's not. From the time I started studying for my PMP and had the part time position with a start up consulting firm, I doubled my salary, (If I was working full-time, but I was only part-time), so I have more than doubled my salary from 2008.